KOREA WAR VETERANS TO BE HONORED AT CENTERVILLE COMBAT FILM PREMIER

Impact of the Korean War, and honor to its combat GIs will be brought to Centerville on Friday and Saturday when wounded veterans, veteran groups, National Guardsmen and high-ranking officers converge on the Center Theatre for the local premier of a documentary war film.

The film is the famed "Cease Fire", made in Korea with actual soldiers for actors.

Theatre Manager Russell Osborn has arranged a free showing Friday night for disabled Korean veterans from several nearby hospitals. The showing will be preceded by ceremonies honoring war dead.

Saturday at 5:45 p. m., a parade will start from the National Guard armory on Alder Avenue. It will end in front of the theatre. Taking part will be color guards of all three VFW posts, plus the Washington Township American Legion, and also that of the Emeryville Legion.

The Parks Air Force Base band and drill team also is scheduled. Major General William Dean, famed Medal of Honor winner in early Korea fighting, has been asked to attend. Dean is now deputy commander of the Sixth Army, stationed in San Francisco.

"Cease Fire" has official sanction for military participation by the U. S. Army's high command. It tells the story of a 14-man patrol which penetrated the enemy lines on the last day of the war.

Other units slated to take part in the parade will be led by the men of C Battery, National Guard, stationed here. A free showing of the film will be given at 2 p. m. on Saturday fall all uniformed paraders, Osborn said.

Lt. Col. Raymond Copeland, 49th Division chaplain, formerly of Irvington, will lead the benediction at both ceremonies. Other officers taking part include Maj. George Edmunds, of Hayward's Air Guard; and Lt. Col. G. S. Nixon, commanding the 629th Field Artillery, of which C Battery is a part.

Parry Asks Firemen Be Hired Under Civil Service Exam, C. of C. Is Mum

Jack Parry this week took his plea that Niles hire firemen under civil service rules, direct to the local chamber of commerce.

Parry also termed the chamber's recent action endorsing the paid-firemen policy "distasteful, poor judgement, and completely unfair." Said he:

"I approached your former president and was assured the matter wouldn't be handled at the chamber meeting."

However, said Parry, he is "happy" that the chamber got into the controversy as it shows a healthy interest in local problems. Then he declared:

"At the last meeting, the commissioners gave me the impression that they frown on civil service because (Newark and Decoto) don't have it.

"The Fire Underwriters recommend it strongly. If we don't hire firemen that way, it may cost taxpayers here a lot of money in fire insurance premiums."

Parry said he wants civil service "to give the firemen protection, and not make it a political job." He urged present volunteers be allowed service credits to give them an advantage when they take the test, "so that we'll probably end up hiring two of the present volunteer firemen."

Parry asked the chamber to back him with a resolution, such as it gave the commissioners when they decided to hire the firemen. But no motion was forthcoming, despite inquiries from Chamber Pres. Howard Mitchell.

Mitchell closed the meeting with the word that "the subject is always open, if anyone cares to open it again."

MANUEL XAVIER OF IRVINGTON DIES

Manuel Ignacio Xavier, 77, a resident of Irvington since 1927, died in an Oakland hospital last Thursday after long illness.

He was the husband of Rosa Amaral Xavier and father of the late Maria Xavier. He is survived by 11 nieces and nephews. Xavier was a member of IDES Lodge No. 1 of Mission San Jose and UPEC.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday from the Berge Mortuary, with Mass at St. Joseph's Church at Mission San Jose and entombment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

CITE NILES CUBS AT 'SCOUTORAMA'

A certificate of merit has been awarded to Niles Cub Pack No. 1 for the presentation of a pottery exhibit at the Scoutorama in Oakland on February 5 and 6.

Judges gave the pack twenty-one points, or the maximum allowable in judging exhibits. Judging points were based on general interest in the exhibit, appearance and neatness of the Cub Scouts in the booth, and the manner in which the Cub Scouts met the public and explained their exhibit.

The January work project for the Niles Cub Pack was in pottery and their art objects were the theme of the exhibit. The boys received plastic clay from Kraftite Co., and modeled ashtrays, bowls, baskets, and animals.

The Cubs then decorated their ware in many colors using underglaze stains. All pottery was glazed and fired at Kraftite Co. to make the clay durable and permanent. In addition to the pottery modeled, each boy hand-painted an unglazed wall tile that was then glazed and fired for him. These tiles will be suitable for hot pads or decorative wall plaques.

The exhibit shown at the Scoutorama is displayed in the windows of Vernon Ellsworth's office.

RITE HERE FOR GEORGE KOMMES

Requiem Mass was offered at Holy Ghost Church for George Kommes, who died February 16 at Yountville Veterans Hospital after an illness of several months.

He is survived by a daughter, Rosemary Kommes.

Kommies was a veteran of World War I. He was a member of Washington Township post of the American Legion, and a past grand knight of Centerville Council, Knights of Columbus.

Arrangements were by Chapel of the Palms.

INCUMBENT FILES
A. M. Alves of Niles, incumbent, is the sole candidate filing for the local fire commissionership.

CEMENT LAWYER BATTLES TO VOID ADOBE ACRES HOME ZONING

A judge's decision is expected today or tomorrow on whether the attorney for a cement company can upset residential zoning for Adobe Acres.

Superior Judge Chris Fox today will hear final arguments from John C. Houlihan, attorney for Santa Cruz Portland Cement. Houlihan is against the home-zoning in the Niles suburb, won last year from the Supervisors and the County Planning Commission.

Houlihan claims the commission acted unfairly in zoning the tract residential, since his client owns 20 vacant acres there.

Arguments by Houlihan and Deputy Dist. Atty. Richard Klippert—for the county—occupied the entire past week of Judge Fox's court.

Called for testimony were George Roeding Jr., nursery owner who plans to sell land in Adobe

Acres for an exclusive subdivision; and Vernon Ellsworth, secretary of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, which endorsed the home zoning.

Houlihan tried to show that Adobe Acres already is a slum, and that it contains "an oil-distributing plant, a truck terminal, and a paper factory." He was unable to prove this to the satisfaction of several homeowners.

John J. Thomas, county planning director, testified the zoning had been under consideration since 1947. He added that if—as Houlihan suggested—all rail-side lands in Washington Township were zoned for industry, "the factories would support the entire present population of the Bay Area."

Both Houlihan and Klippert hinted that if beaten, they will carry the fight to a higher court.

GOB—Fermin Martinez, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Martinez, Niles, is taking recruit training at the San Diego Naval Training Center.

FIRE AT PACIFIC STATES CLOSES MILL FOR 10 DAYS

A disastrous fire ruined a huge electrical motor Monday afternoon at the Pacific States Steel rolling mill and closed the huge mill for at least 10 days.

The blaze occurred when a short-circuit ignited coils in the motor which runs the 30-inch mill. Management spokesman said it would take 10 days to repair, working 'round the clock.

Plant firemen and the Niles Fire Department battled the blaze for nearly an hour.

More than 400 men will be affected by the forced shutdown. Mill officials closed the 30-inch mill at once, and the last operating open-hearth furnace was closed at 6 p. m. Monday.

Sixteen and 12-inch rolling mills operated until today, when their supply of billets was exhausted.

Pacific States has been running three shifts in the rolling mill prior to the fire.

Maria Wins Delay To Find Lawyer

Ralph J. Maria, 22, Niles, burly kidnap-rape suspect, was arraigned Friday in Centerville Justice Court.

Justice E. A. Quaresma granted Maria's request to have his arraignment continued until next Friday, at which time he said he will arrange to have an attorney.

Maria is accused on two counts of kidnapping, one of robbery and one of rape, in last Sunday's episode when a 16-year-old Niles girl and her soldier escort were kidnapped at knife's point and forced to drive to Madera.

Maria is held in default of $50,000 bail, highest ever set in the local justice court.

NEWARK HERO'S FAMILY GIVEN HIS 11 AWARDS

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Cunha, Newark, have received from the War Department eleven decorations and certificates of awards earned by their son, Corporal Elidio A. Cunha, who was killed in action in Korea on September 4, 1951.

Beside the Purple Heart, which was awarded posthumously, his decorations include: Good Conduct medal; American Campaign Medal; European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Medal with two Bronze Service Stars for the Rhineland and Ardennes-Alsace Campaigns; World War II Victory Medal; Army of Occupation Medal with Germany clasp; United Nations Service Medal; Korean Service Ribbon with two Bronze Service Stars for the CCF spring offensive and UN summer-fall offensive campaigns; Combat Infantry Badge (two awards World War II and Korea); Sharpshooter Badge with Carbine and Rifle Bars; Marksman Badge with Pistol Bar; Belgian Fourragere; and National Defense Service Medal.

During World War II, Cunha served 22 months in the European Theatre with the "Golden Lion" 224th Infantry Regiment, and was one of his regiment's nine survivors in the Battle of the Bulge.

He was in Korea four months in the 17th Infantry Regiment.

CARMEN PUTS IN PLUG FOR NILES

It's a small world, Charles A. Russell, Niles contractor, decided last week.

Russell flew to Mexico City on a pleasure trip. He placed a phone call back to Niles.

"Aha!" said the operator. "My old home town." Turned out she was Carmen Flores, former resident of Old Town and later of Centerville. Carmen asked Russell to remember her to her friends when he returned here this week.

HITS TRUCK, WAVES, DRIVES ON: CLAIM

A Western Pacific streamliner smashed into a local truck at the Rock Avenue crossing west of Niles at 10:20 a. m. Tuesday, and two employees of Transport Service, Inc., narrowly escaped death by leaping from the vehicle.

John James, 32, of Niles, reported he did not see the train until it was upon him. He speculated that the crossing signal was not operating. He and an unidentified student driver jumped a second before the impact, which completely wrecked the truck's heavy-duty tractor.

Asked if the train was stopped to render aid, James said it was not. He said the engineer "waved from the cab", then drove on.

In Niles, a WP spokesman refused to give information about the accident, and refused callers to his superintendent in Sacramento. He did say, however, that the train was on schedule through Niles after the crash.

The crossing is a blind spot, protected only by a wigwag signal. Although the truck's motor unit was smashed, the large empty trailer it was towing was unscratched.

NILES VOTES FOR REVAMPING WTCC

The Niles Chamber of Commerce last week agreed to instruct its delegates to the Township Chamber to vote for amended by-laws which would broaden membership in that body.

The delegates will ballot tonight (Thursday). The Alvarado Chamber also approved the changes at their meeting last week.

In Niles, Dr. T. C. Wilson commented that although he lives in the Irvington School District, he received a mailed notice to vote in the Mission San Jose school-aid election Friday.

"The precincts are still fouled up," said he. "I wish the assessor and the county clerk would get together and find out who lives where."

School Wage Confab

The Washington Township Teachers' Association plans a workshop on school finance to be conducted by Dr. Oscar Anderson, administrator with San Francisco City College, to be held in the Arts and Crafts room of the Newark Elementary School on March 1.

Members of the Boards of Education in Washington Township will be guests of the joint administrator-and-teacher group. Dr. Anderson's announced topic is "problems concerning the means of evolving a basic formula and the general procedures that must be considered to set up an equitable and practical salary scale within any school district."

Dr. Anderson also serves as consultant on school finance to the State Legislature.

LICENSE ON TRIAL

Repeated traffic violations this week placed the drivers' license of Thomas G. Alger, Decoto, in probationary status, according to the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

FAIR RACES CHASE SHOW AWAY: WILSON

The Alameda County Fair is going to abandon the traditional horsemanship this year because it conflicts with parimutuel horse-racing, Dr. T. C. Wilson charged Tuesday before the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Wilson said he has been informed stable space for the show horses is needed for the bangtails. Then he demanded:

"Why don't they run a separate race if that's what they want, and not ruin the whole fair for a few horseracers?" He also charged the stage is being set for Supervisor Harry Bartell "to take over the Fair Association management as soon as he retires this year."

"Let's quit these benefits for broken-down horses and horsemen," cried the dentist.

Pup Cagers End Season Unbeaten With 52-40 Win Over Eaglets

By BOB HIRD

Coach Don Wolfe's Washington lightweights completed their league season undefeated as they walloped the Mountain View 130's, 52-40, last Friday night.

The B's went straight through with 7 consecutive wins in capturing the B' title.

The Junior Huskies enjoyed a comfortable lead in the first half but the tough Eaglet quintet began to rally late in the third period. The Eaglets tied the score at 42-42 with two minutes remaining. Then the Pupies, sparked by Center Ray Orozco and Forward Don Martin, pulled away to gain the victory and perfect mark.

Orozco and Martin, who were elected co-captains for the year, led the scoring with 20 and 17 points respectively. Art Anchundo was voted most valuable player by his teammates.

Orozco, Martin and Anchundo, seniors, also played their last game for the Centerville club.

HUSKY BASEBALL OPENS TUESDAY

Coach Gene Johnson's Husky baseballers open their season Tuesday on home grounds with a non-league tilt against San Lorenzo.

The contest is slated for 3:15 p. m.

The Huskies follow up next Thursday with a match against the San Jose State frosh in San Jose.

Johnson will have his work cut out for him this season. The locals were hit hard by graduation. Regulars lost from last year's club via the diploma route include John Chacon, recently signed by the S. F. Seals; Bob Lunsford, Tony Nieves, Dick Arington, Frank Murakami and Ed King. Little Left Fielder Ed Romero won't be able to play because of an age limit.

Filling in at first base for the smooth-fielding Nieves will be Craig Bellati, up from last year's B team. Santos will hold down one of the infield spots while Ed Fletcher, Ed Meneze, Jess Pineda and Gordon Stefans will battle it out for the remaining berths.

Only lettermen returning are Catcher Ernie Delgado, Pitchers Bob Hird and Allan Olk, Third Sacker Don Santos and Center Fielder Raul Orozco.

Frank Velarde, Leroy DeSalles, and Dan Rodarte who were all on last year's varsity roster, along with Bill Waters up from the Bs, will seek outfield berths.

Giving Delgado competition for the back-stopping spot will be Carl Von Ew and Ken Galoway, both experienced catchers.

Pressing the experienced Hird and Olk will be Al Hernandez and Dave Hempleman, up from last year's B club.

HUSKIES LOSE, DROP FROM 1ST DIVISION

Despite a second-half rally, the Washington Huskies lost their first-division berth as they bowed to Mountain View, 56-52, on the winner's floor last Friday.

The loss gave the Huskies a 3-4 mark in league play and a sixth place in the standings. The Eagles wound up in a tie for second place. Paced by league-leading scorer John Lozano, Mountain View pulled away to a 14-9 first quarter lead.

By the end of the second period they had a comfortable 31-23 edge.

The Huskies came back in the third quarter looking like a new ball club. Forwards Raul Orozco and Bob Hird and Center Jim Meyer helped the locals pull to within 4 points of the Eagles, 42-38, at the end of the quarter.

The Orange and Black continued to rally in the fourth period and with 4 minutes left, trailed by only 2 points, 52-50. The tricky Lozano then broke loose and sank two quick jump shots to give his team a 56-50 lead.

The next time the Eagles got the ball, they went into a freeze until time ran out. The 5' 6" Lozano, who was celebrating his birthday, sparked his teammates with 23 points.

Members of the Washington Hi basketball team last week elected Raul Orozco as captain for the year and Allen Olk as most valuable player.

ALAMEDA CREEK TO BE TROUT HAVEN

Alameda Creek will be a trout stream this year for the first time, the San Francisco Water Department and Regional staff of the State Department of Fish and Game jointly announced today.

The creek, in Niles Canyon, will be planted with catchable-sized trout from the Sunol Dam six miles down to Niles. Plantings will be monthly during the angling season, as long as suitable water prevails.

The agreement to stock Alameda Creek for public angling was completed this week with the Water Regional Manager Robert L. Jones of the Department of Fish and Game said.

"The Water Department has secured cooperation of its land tenants, to allow the public free access to the creek, when the season opens on May 1. With the creek only 30 miles from downtown Oakland, and 50 miles from San Francisco, we expect that many fishermen will enjoy this new trout angling area," Jones added.

The Alameda Creek opening marks the Fish and Game Department's first success in its program to establish catchable trout stream plantings near the metropolitan Bay Area.

Resorts on the creek are reserving the right to charge for parking, picnicking, etc., Jones said, but access along the entire stream is free.

Need Old Sheets

The Alameda County Branch of the American Cancer Society has need for old sheets, Mrs. James Robertson of Newark, Southern Alameda County deputy commander, disclosed today.

Anyone having old sheets to contribute to the Cancer Society is urged to mail or deliver them to the ACS branch office, 3031 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland.

SUZY SEZ...

After saying she'd not tell a soul, I heard an Irvington woman repeat some uncomplimentary gossip. Bad news travels fast, but a colorful story seems to make the rounds even faster.

Believe it or not, you dieters can fry meats in a hot skillet using only two or three drops of salad oil, measured in an eye dropper.

A word of advice to the man who commutes. Save your wife worry by being extra careful when she is in the car, and she'll think you always are a cautious driver.

Beauty experts who advise relaxing a half-hour before supper in a tub of hot water are either childless or have several bathrooms and unlimited hot water.

After finding how little their pre-war auto was worth, a Newark couple now say they will keep it for an antique.

I know a woman who hates coffee, but has started drinking it because she doesn't want folks to think she can't afford it!

"The Case of the Red Hair" almost got serious, until a certain Decoto man furnished proof that a neighbor's red setter dog was shedding on his jacket.

One advantage of the wet weather is that the flood of door-to-door salesmen is abated.

A Newark business woman has a very clever idea. She wears one of her husband's shirts with a scarf matching the stripes at the open neck.

A Niles Grandmother says the thing she misses most from the good old (pre-TV) days is the Friday night family gathering, when conversation and games were popular.

A Centerville mother of four bakes once a week, and cuts her left-over cakes into serving pieces then wraps in foil to freeze. They thaw in the children's lunch boxes, and taste fresh-baked.

You can keep those china ash trays from scratching your tables by placing colorless nail polish on the bottom edges. They are still washable.

Women who say they won't let their husbands do housework and cooking probably mean their husbands WON'T do it. Doubtless they are green-eyed over those women who have assistance from the man of the family.

The people who get to the top are not afraid of up-hill work!
So long...

OUTRAGEOUS IS THE WORD

A new low in national politics was reached by Senator William Langer's handling of the confirmation of Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States. Langer stalled the confirmation as long as he could, then he let into the record of his Judiciary subcommittee statements that Warren had followed the Marxist line while governor of California, that he was under the thumb of the liquor lobby, and that he deliberately appointed crooked judges.

Langer had been snubbed by the Administration over appointment of some postmasters in his home state, and this was his way of trying to embarrass the Administration in return.

The senator's position was not made more secure when it turned out one of the accusations against Warren came from a fugitive from justice, and the other from a Commie-front leader.

Such flimsy and libelous evidence, read into the record for reasons of personal spite, shows how a conscientious public servant can be smirched by mud freely thrown. The charges are no discredit to Earl Warren, however. Knocks from such sources are universally recognized as boosts. But the slimy methods used by Langer cast deep discredit on the high office of a United States senator.

DADDY KNOWS BEST (?)

The County Planning Commission's rebuff of Centerville's plea to save railside land for industries is another illustration of how badly we need locally-controlled government in Washington Township.

The Centerville Chamber of Commerce stood united in its wish to retain industrially-surrounded property for factory purposes. With an airy wave of its hand, the fogbound commission dismissed the plea and earmarked the land for subdivision.

A silver-plated lining may be discerned: the dispute wakened the Oakland slumberers into setting a date for zoning Centerville. Like the State agencies that install stop-signals only when enough accidents have been recorded, the Planning Commission apparently feels the need to make a towering blunder or two before it is willing to even the averages and do what the local folks desire.

CALLING BLOOD DONORS

The need for blood was borne home to us with a vengeance last week. The Register printer collapsed and was saved only by massive transfusions of blood at the hospital. Without the blood—a dozen pints of it—he surely would have died.

With the Korea War ended, the drama attached to blood giving seems to have lost its appeal. No less urgent today is the need for blood to make Gamma Globulin for polio vaccine, and to save the casualties of everyday living who couldn't make it without the corpuscles you part with so painlessly.

There's no need to stand watch over baking in your kerosene range or stay near a kerosene heater or lamp when first lit if you always burn Pearl Oil. Standard's famous kerosene. A Pearl Oil flame does not creep up. It is super-refined... impurities removed, maintains even heat, allows smoke and soot-free operation. ## HATFIELD, MCCOY SPIRIT IN DECOTO

A Decoto family feud flared in justice court last week, with both sides charging the other with battery.

Ranged against each other are the Perez brothers Robert, 22, and Victor, 30; and Delbert Gregory, 43, and his son J. C., 22.

Deputies sorted out these facts from conflicting stories: J. C. Gregory and the Perezes were involved in an auto collision on January 21. Shortly afterward, Delbert Gregory went to the Perez home at 312 Fifth St., demanded to see the brothers' drivers licenses.

This culminated in an exchange of fisticuffs. Not to be outdone, the brothers then visited the Gregorays at El Arroyo Cabins on February 3. More fighting ensued, and both Perezes and Gregorays called in the law.

Last Friday the Perez brothers appeared before Judge E. A. Quaresma on the battery charge, heard their case continued to Friday. Delbert Gregory also appeared in court this week.
